

EdSERT™ Educator SEL

Competence Builds Confidence. Support Your Teachers with Educator Social and Emotional Reflection and Training (EdSERT)

A professional development program to support the social and emotional knowledge, skill set, and well-being of educators.

- Professional development to teach educators about key social-emotional skills and why they are important.
- Self-reflective assessments for educators to reflect on their existing social and-emotional teaching practices.
- Personal development plans to guide educators in identifying growth opportunities and setting goals in areas such as productivity, adaptability, controlling emotions and impulses, stress management, and more.
- Self-directed strategies and teaching practices designed to help educators strengthen their social and emotional teaching practices and model them in the classroom.

Why SEL for Educators?

Teacher Preparation

Competent Teachers = Competent Students

Teacher Resilience

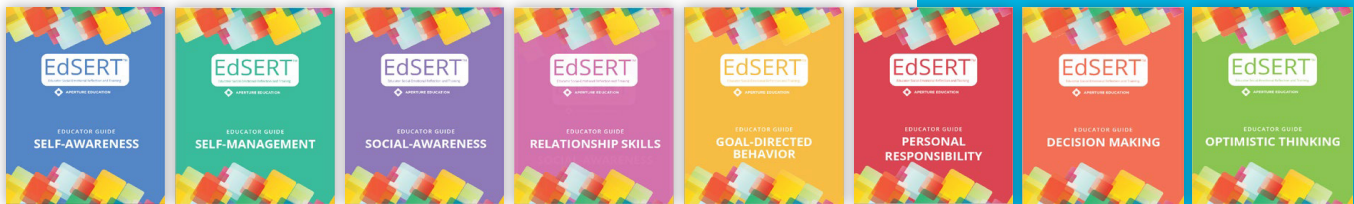

Turnover & Retention

The Aperture Education Approach to Educator SEL

- Aligned to the DESSA
- CASEL™ aligned
- Research-based
- Informed by educators
- Comprehensive and data-driven
- Personalized and self-directed
- Practical- Just 1 hour/month

Connect with our Partnership team to discuss the best option for you.

Sales@ApertureEd.com

EdSERT provides a common knowledge for the leaders and teachers in our school district. Together, we are building our competence through a time of learning, self-reflection, and application.

Jennifer Gardner, MTSS District Coordinator, Greene County Schools

